The Open Source ecosystem is the most powerful innovation incubator of the world

The OSS Ecosystem as a Meta Organization

The Open Source ecosystem is the largest software creator of the world

The OSS Ecosystem as a Meta Organization

The Open Source ecosystem is the largest software supplier of the world

But ...

The OSS Ecosystem as a Meta Organization

The Open Source ecosystem lacks integrated and automated Open Source compliance toolchains

Ok let's build it

The OpenChain Reference Tooling Work Group - Mission

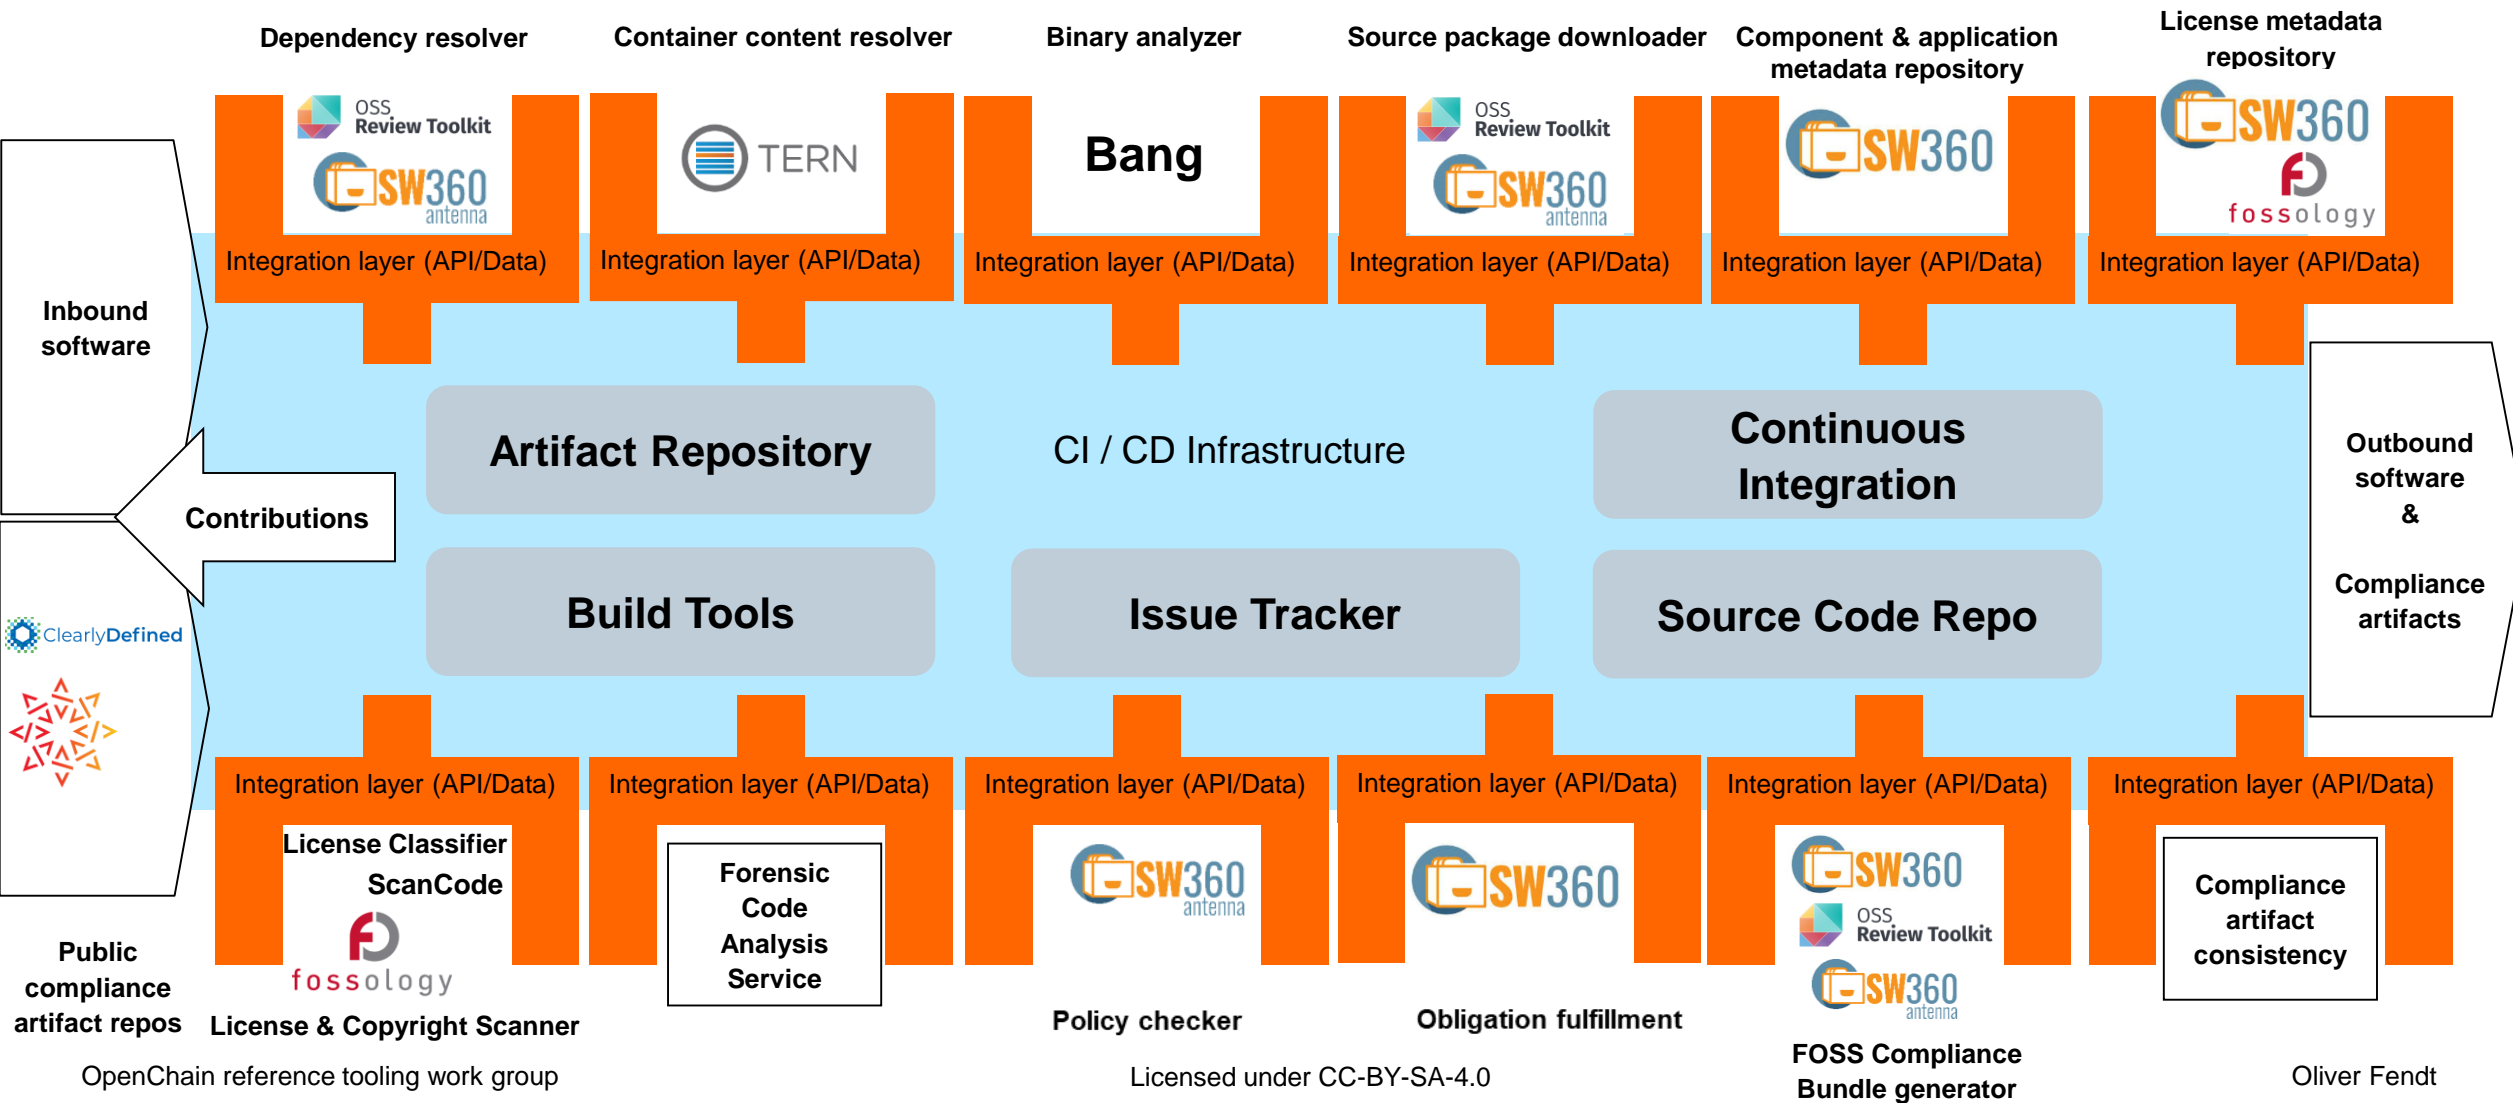

We are building an open source compliance toolchain ecosystem with open source tools as an open source project.

To accomplish this we:

- Use existing independent tooling projects
- Provide reference workflows to allow their adoption
- Provide the concepts and glue code to ensure easy interoperability and integration in existing environments
- Provide reference turnkey toolchains that can be used without fees by anybody

Example Toolchain Implementation

OpenChain Reference Tooling Work Group

will realize automated and integrated Open Source compliance toolchains, which easily can be used free of charge

In short words

OSS license compliance for everyone
